

'Yes You Can' Harnessing Talents and Abilities

Keynote: Sue Mordecai, specialist adviser, education of the more able

A one day cross-phase conference focusing on provision for the more able, gifted and talented

Tuesday 13th January 2015 hosted at Aylward Academy, Enfield

Designed for schools at varying stages in their provision for the more able gifted and talented

Benefits of attending

- Initiate or develop further your policy and practice for the more able
- Understand the role of leading more able provision and know where to start
- Gain strategies for the classroom to challenge and stretch more able pupils
- Understand Ofsted's latest expectations of provision and progress for the more able and how to meet them
- Learn about the NACE Challenge Award Framework for reviewing and improving whole school provision for the more able

Workshops will include:

- Able Gifted & Talented Policy into Practice
- Challenge in the Everyday Classroom
- Preparing for Ofsted's Focus on the More Able
- The NACE Challenge Award

Who should attend?

Teachers
Headteachers
Deputy Headteachers
Asst. Headteachers
A,G&T Coordinators
Heads of Department

Secure your place book online www.nace.co.uk

NACE members: £199 + vat

Non members: £299 + vat