

Member meetup: “Working in depth for the more able: beyond Bloom”

A free meetup event for NACE members, exploring approaches to working in depth for more able learners, hosted by the National Maritime Museum.

29 November 2017, National Maritime Museum, London SE10 9NF

This free meetup offers fresh inspiration, expert input and tried-and-tested approaches to promote working in depth across all subjects and phases. Hosted by London’s renowned National Maritime Museum, the session will open with a presentation and discussion led by experienced education consultant Heather Clements, author of the upcoming NACE Essentials case study on the use of SOLO Taxonomy to support challenge in the classroom.

Promising an abundance of practical ideas and materials to take back to your school, this event is for all school staff leading on provision for more able learners.

Programme

- 10:30 Registration and refreshments
- 10:50 Welcome
Sue Riley, NACE CEO
- 11:00 SOLO Taxonomy: an approach to working in depth
Presentation and discussion, led by NACE associate Heather Clements
- 11:50 Speed sharing: “one that worked”
Exchange of resources and approaches to support working in depth
- 12:30 National Maritime Museum for schools
Introduction to the museum’s learning programme and enquiry-based approach – Ben Weddell, learning producer: schools
- 12:50 Membership updates
Vicky Eaton, NACE membership coordinator
- 13:00 Networking lunch and informal discussion
- 14:00 Complimentary exhibition entry: “Death in the Ice”
Explore the unsolved mystery of Sir John Franklin’s fatal final expedition

Book your place: www.nace.co.uk/events

Programme subject to change. If unable to attend, please contact us to transfer your place to a colleague. A non-attendance fee of £50 will be charged for any booked places not taken up on the day.

