

Member meetup: “Managing successful transition for the more able”

A free meetup for NACE members, exploring approaches to supporting transition from primary to secondary school, hosted by Shakespeare’s Globe.

8 June 2018, Shakespeare’s Globe, London SE1 9DT

Join NACE members from both sides of the primary/secondary divide to exchange good practice in supporting more able learners during the crucial period of transition into KS3.

This free event will explore a range of creative, collaborative and challenge-based approaches to transition, with examples from Challenge Award-accredited Canons High School and the Globe Education team. Benefit from the broad range of experience in the room during the speed-sharing session and networking lunch, before having the opportunity to enjoy a matinee performance in the iconic Globe Theatre. Fresh ideas, inspiration and laughter guaranteed!
