

nace membership

At NACE, we believe providing for more able learners is a whole-school endeavour, to be approached in the context of challenge for all. When you join NACE, all staff at your school become members, with access to our full range of expert support.

Online resources

Created by our expert practitioners exclusively for NACE members, our free resources cover the full spectrum of provision – from policy development to classroom practice.

Members' community

Exchange ideas at our free member meetups, join discussions online, and draw on the expertise and experience of fellow NACE members.

Professional development

Free webinars and discounted rates on workshops throughout the year – including training for those new to the field, experienced coordinators, and subject specialists.

Research & policy

Stay up to date with the latest research and policy, accompanied by guidance on how to apply recommendations in the context of provision for more able learners.

Representation

Contribute to NACE's dialogue with government bodies, and join our Leading Schools Network at invitation-only events and consultations.

NACE Challenge Development Programme

A school self-evaluation and improvement toolkit designed to help you review and develop the quality of provision for your more able learners, in the context of challenge for all. Exclusively available to NACE members, the programme can lead to formal accreditation through the NACE Challenge Award.

Why choose NACE?

NACE is the UK's leading charity dedicated to supporting schools and teachers across every aspect of provision for more able learners. Drawing on over 30 years' experience in the field, NACE is at the forefront of thought leadership and evidence-based policy for the more able, with NACE member schools leading the way in implementing best practice.

When you join NACE, you join a community of schools across England, Wales and beyond, with opportunities to network and collaborate both online and face-to-face. Our members benefit from free meetups and webinars; a comprehensive online library of free resources; discounts on staff training, seminars and CPD; and opportunities to join invitation-only events and consultations.

NACE members also have exclusive access to the NACE Challenge Development Programme, an established school self-evaluation and improvement toolkit, which can lead to formal accreditation through the NACE Challenge Award.

What our members say...

"NACE membership offers a wealth of materials for coordinators (both new and experienced) that help you understand your role and create purposeful action plans. Overall, being a member of NACE has helped us develop challenge in innumerable ways."

Carl Iszatt, able coordinator, Highfield Primary School

"Whether the school needs to develop from a low Ofsted category and low achievement to a high-performing school, or go beyond the outstanding category, the NACE Challenge Framework provides the challenge, the direction and the energy for all."

Paul Dick, headteacher of Kennet School and chief executive of the Kennet School Academies Trust

"Being a member of NACE has enabled us to access high-quality learning support and specialist advice. Alongside research and best practice in other schools, we are able to plan and implement proven strategies, which will enhance the learning of all our children."

Jennifer Richards, headteacher and headteacher consultant, St Mark's CE Primary, Aquinas Trust
